

Epic $300K Super Bowl Package Includes Helicopter Ride to Napa, Golf With Jerry Rice, PGA Golf Coach and Private Celeb After Parties

Celebrate The Big 50 with Jerry and Scott

This year's Super Bowl 50 is a big one. The February 7th game is bringing Coldplay and Beyoncé together for the halftime show, but far more important than that you can enjoy a once-in-a-lifetime experience with NFL Hall of Famer Jerry Rice and an amazing list of perks including:

- Exclusive and extensive time with the NFL's greatest wide receiver.
- Invitation-only VIP passes to three different celebrity-packed Super Bowl Parties including Leather & Laces, Leigh Steinberg and the Rolling Stone parties, which are seriously private soirées that bring together the likes of Leonardo DiCaprio, Mick Jagger and George Clooney. Which means you can hang out with them and maybe even chat with Leo about his newest hit, The Revenant.
- Only available as a one time package never to be duplicated and only available for one buyer
- $2k airfare for two for those outside of the Bay Area, five nights at a top-tier hotel, all ground transportation and two tickets to the game.
- 750 ml bottle of Black Bottle winery's Napa Cabernet ($1,000 value and not available in retail)
- Custom 18-liter bottle worth $48,000 that stars a special Super Bowl 50 logo commemorating Jerry Rice and his long list of NFL accomplishments along with the athlete's signature and Napa Valley-based Black Bottle Winery founder Mark Russo's signature. (At the bottom it says "1 of 1" and I will never make another one of these bottles, so it's completely and totally bespoke," promises Russo)
- 49ers helmet signed by Rice with a custom engraved case.
- Ample time to chat with Rice about his career while on a private golf outing with him and PGA Golf Guru Scott Seifferlein.
- Cool on-field visit with Rice and a photo session.
- Special "The Black Bottle Inside View to the Napa Valley" including private villa in Napa, plus dinners at La Toque and French Laundry, an exclusive vertical tasting of The Black Bottle and visits to top Napa wineries, including Harlan Estate.
- Private helicopter transportation from the big game to Napa Valley.
- Lastly, the package includes an entire year of private coaching from the PGA Golf Guru and freakin' awesome dude according to his mother, Scott Seifferlein. And Scott guarantees a victory in your $25,000 Nassau game with Jerry Rice.

A portion of the $300k price tag will be donated to Jerry Rice's charity, while another chunk will be given to the charity of the buyer's choice. If interested, contact Scott Seifferlein via email at Scott@GrandRapidsGolfLesson.com or telephone at (616) 802.4969.
